

Function Libraries

This feature is available in midPoint 3.7 or later.

Overview

Function libraries are dedicated midPoint objects that contain set of reusable functions. The functions can be used in other mappings and expressions in midPoint. Function libraries can be used to group frequently-used parts of the code, therefore simplifying midPoint configuration and maintenance.

Configuration

Please see Function Libraries Configuration page for configuration details.

See Also

- Function Libraries Configuration
- Basic Data Model
- Mappings and Expressions
- Expression